

Southeast Runoffs Divisional Path - 2022 Rules

2/23/2022 -- by Jim Creighton SEDiv SARRC Administrator

Drivers must Participate in a minimum of 4 event weekends and must finish in the TOP 50% of the SARRC Points Standings.

NEW: 2022 Majors events count for Participation, but do not earn Points.

1. All SEDiv events qualify for Participation. "Participate" is defined as turning a wheel on track in an official session (practice, qualifying, warm-up, race) and appear in Official Race Results. An event is described as a race weekend.
2. Only SARRC race results will earn points.* (Current schedule: <https://drive.google.com/drive/u/1/folders/1cKngXGNjZ4TsG1dg7FY4i7-N3bHvi2ZE>)
3. All qualifying events will be held between November 5th, 2021 and September 13th, 2022.
4. Neither SCCA Sanctioned Test Days nor Enduros count.
5. A SARRC event weekend may have one or two SARRC point races.
6. Drivers may count their best 8 SARRC race finishes for standings, but must finish at least 3 SARRC races.
7. Points will be awarded per the regular season SARRC rules. (see SARRC Rules at: www.sediv racing.com)
8. Runoffs invitations will be extended to the top 50% of Runoffs eligible class drivers in the SARRC regular season standings as of September 11, 2022 (Space Permitting).

* Non-SARRC race events in SEDiv will only count for Participation credit. No points will be awarded for these events.

 Divisional Path entries may not be available if a class is over subscribed.

Special Note- If you intend to use this SEDiv path, please contact Jim Creighton @ jcreig53@mindspring.com so we can track your progress.

Frequently Asked Questions

How does “Space Permitting” affect me?

Drivers who Finish the Divisional Point Standings TOP 3 in class (Top 5 for SM/SRF) under Rule 6 will earn an automatic invitation to the Runoffs. The Space Permitting factor does not apply to them. Space Permitting only applies to the remaining drivers whose final points in a class are in the Top 50%. If a class is oversubscribed for the 2022 Runoffs, an invitation may not be available.

Can drivers use an SCCA Pro weekend in the Divisional Path?

No, the SCCA Pro Participation option is only available to drivers who use the U.S. Majors Tour Path. See GCR 3.7.4. for the official rule description.

Where will the events be held that I can earn points?

You can earn points at scheduled SARRC events in every State where we race. The current list of events is in the chart below - but remember our schedule can change. If in doubt, refer to our website listing throughout the season:
