(P)PROTESTS AND (A)APPEALS

Here listed, are the protests and appeals of the 1988 Yokohama Solo II Nationals:

(P)1. Larson (HS14) vs Rupp (HS1). Protested tires as not meeting requirements of 11.3.B. Protest was not well founded. Since the word "model" is used in the rulebook, the tire had been previously ruled legal by the SEB. Protest fee retained by SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

(P)2. Lee (AS77) vs Peck (AS66). Protested front wheel offset, front end components and front end alignment. Alignment was found to be legal. The wheels and road springs were ruled outside the allowances of the SIIR. Protest was well founded. Mr. Peck was disqualified (DSQ). Protest fee was returned to Mr. Lee.
NOTE: Peck (ASL66) Disqualified (DSQ)

(A)2. Peck (AS66) vs Protest Committee. Mr. Peck's appeal concerning the method of measuring wheel offset was upheld. Mr. Peck's appeal concerning the width of the wheels and the tolerance of the road springs was not well founded and the protest by Mr. Lee upheld. Appeal fee retained by the SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

(P)3. Lee (AS77) vs Cave (AS71). Protested front end components and front end alignment. Road springs were ruled outside the allowances of the specifications. Front end alignment exceeded the normal range built into the car. Protest was well founded. Mr. Cave was disqualified (DSQ). Protest fee was returned to Mr. Lee.

(A)3. Cave (AS71) vs Protest Committee. Mr. Cave's appeal did not provide additional supporting documentation to refute the findings of the protest committee. Mr. Cave's appeal was denied and the protest by Mr. Lee upheld. Appeal fee retained by the SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

(P)4. Peck (AS66) vs Timing & Scoring. Mr. Peck alleged that Mr. Fordahl (AS31) hit two course markers which were not charged to him. A review of corner workers log and appropriate witness documentation indicated Mr. Peck was correct. Protest was well founded. Proper Timing & Scoring corrections were assessed. Protest fee was returned to Mr. Peck.

(P)5. Wolf (EP9) vs Noonan (EP22). Mr. Wolf alleged that Mr. Noonan had incorrectly classed his entry vehicle in Class EP. He alleged that the vehicle should have been in Class DP. Vehicle was correctly classed. Protest was not well founded. Protest fee retained by SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

(P)6. Withdrawn.

(P)7. Tinsley (CSP34) vs Endicott (CSP86). Mr. Tinsley alleged that contrary to the rules, the battery tray was removed when the battery was relocated. The tray was removed. However, the tray was still in the vehicle having been used to secure the battery in the new location. No penalty was assessed. Mr. Endicott was instructed to relocate the tray to its original position prior to competing the vehicle again. Protest was well founded. Protest fee was returned to Mr. Tinsley.

(P)8. Withdrawn.

(P)9. Jessurun (FS62) vs Ames (FS99). Mr. Jessurun alleged that Mr. Ames had substituted a full-sized spare tire in place of the manufacturer supplied "space-saver" spare. The full-size spare tire and wheel cannot be ordered directly from the manufacturer but is available as a "dealer installed option." An affidavit affirmed that "no" spare tire was in the vehicle during Mr. Ames first competition run on the South Course. Under impound during the second days competition, Mr. Ames competed with the "no" spare tire configuration. The times of the second and third competition runs from the first days competition are disallowed (DNF) and only those competition runs in legal configuration are allowed. Protest was well founded. Protest fee was returned to Mr. Jessurun.

(P)10. Ames (FS99) vs Altenburg (FS48). Mr. Ames alleged that Mr. Altenburg had an unauthorized modification. The upper strut bushings were installed "upside down". This modification altered camber and improved performance. Protest was well founded. Mr. Altenburg was disqualified (DSQ). Protest fee was returned to Mr. Ames.

(A)10. Altenburg (FS48) vs Protest Committee. The basis of Mr. Altenburg's appeal was that no performance advantage was gained by the unauthorized modification. No additional factors were presented in his appeal. The appeal was not well-founded. Appeal fee retained by the SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

The following protest actions were developed in Impound either as a direct result of official inquiry or the open hood rule:

(P) The Committee vs Kendrick (BS49). Rear spring spacers were improperly installed. Unauthorized modification. Competitor placed last in class.

(A) Kendrick (BS49) vs The Committee. The basis of Mr. Kendrick's appeal was that no performance advantage was gained by the unauthorized modification. No additional factors were presented in his appeal. The appeal was not well-founded. Appeal fee retained by the SCCA Rally/Solo Department.

(P) The Committee vs Lee (AS77). Alleged to have a metal clutch hydraulic line installed in place of OEM plastic line as well as a questionable sized clutch master cylinder. Clutch master was correct size per service manual and line is a normally replaceable part. No penalty.

(P) The Committee vs Pugsley (FS88). Air induction horn was missing. Unauthorized modification. Competitor disqualified (DSQ).

(P) The Committee vs Groshek (CSP31). Center clearance hole on strut modified. Unauthorized modification. Competitor disqualified (DSQ).

(P) The Committee vs Miller (DP17). Radiator brackets and inner fender panels removed. Unauthorized modification. Competitor disqualified (DSQ).

(P) The Committee vs Nock (DP24). Hood on competition vehicle was not an "exact" replica of original part. No performance advantage. No penalty. Mr. Nock was instructed to make front body panel corrections prior to competing the vehicle again.

(P) The Committee vs Goodner (FS9); Brown (FS109); Ames (FS91), Ames (FS99). All were found to have competed with full size spare tires. (See (P)9.) The Committee was advised erroneously by the local Salina Ford dealer, and subsequently ruled accordingly that, a full size spare could be ordered from the manufacturer. This ruling resulted in a competitor protest being filed against Ames (FS99) ONLY. Even though later evidence disclosed that the information was false, the original ruling was allowed and not reversed as no additional competitor protests were filed. No penalty.
